An Act Increasing the Mileage Reimbursement Rate for Workers' Compensation Claimants

Increases the Mileage Reimbursement Rate for Workers' Compensation Claimants

Effective for actual travel expenses incurred on or after October 1, 2001, this public act increases the mileage reimbursement rate for all workers' compensation claimants who use their private motor vehicles to travel to medical appointments necessitated by their work-related injuries. This rate increase applies to all claimants, regardless of injury date, and now coincides with the federal mileage reimbursement rate.
